The Trustees of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation 410 East 100th Street New York, NY 10029

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation as of June 30, 2013 and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We have conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation as of June 30, 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 18, 2013 on our consideration of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be read in conjunction with this report in considering the results of our audit.

Very truly yours,

Stamm & Bader

October 18, 2013

To the Trustees of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation 410 East 100th Street New York, New York 10029

We have performed the procedures identified below, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2012, which were agreed to by the management and Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation solely to assist the specified parties in evaluating the school's assertion that it has financial controls in place for transactions relating to the following:

- a. Preparing financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures; and
- b. Payroll procedures; and
- c. Accounting for contributions and grants; and
- d. Procedures for the creation and review of quarterly financial statements, which procedures shall specifically identify the individual who will be responsible for preparing such financial statements; and
- e. Appropriate internal financial controls and procedures.

This agreed-upon procedures' engagement was performed in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of the specific users of the report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

-2-Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation

The procedures we performed and the related findings are as follows:

Procedure #1:

We obtained a copy of the financial practices of the School and read it to ascertain whether it included accounting procedures for the preparation of the School's financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles for not-for-profit organizations. We observed that Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation is adhering to all generally accepted accounting procedures on an accrual system.

Procedure #2:

We read the financial practices to ascertain whether it included payroll procedures for the School and to determine whether the School has hired an outside vendor to process the payroll.

We observed that Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation is using an outside vendor to process the payroll as well as adhering to all required procedures.

Procedure #3:

We read the financial practices to ascertain whether it includes procedures for accounting for contributions and grants.

We observed that Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation has procedures for the receipt of contributions and gifts within the scope of its mission, goals and annual plans.

Procedure #4:

We read the available trial balance and documentation supporting cash receipts, cash disbursements and payroll expenses on a sample basis to observe the status of implementation of the accounting procedures.

We observed that we have reviewed all available trial balances and have observed supporting cash receipts, cash disbursements and payroll expenses on a sample basis and they conform to the accounting procedures in place.

-3-Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation

Procedure #5:

11-11

We identified and interviewed the persons(s) responsible for financial management of the school regarding the existence of procedures for the creation of quarterly financial reports and review of management reports.

The person(s) responsible for the financial management for the school are the school directors as well as the Board of Trustees, Finance & Audit Committee. An interview with these persons noted that procedures exist for all financial statement requirements.

Procedure #6:

We interviewed the person(s) responsible for the financial management of the school regarding the existence of appropriate internal financial controls and procedures, including procedures related to ensuring that transactions are properly authorized, assets are safeguarded against unauthorized or improper use, and transactions are properly recorded and reported.

The School Directors interviewed represented that they are responsible for appropriate internal financial controls and procedures. We have test-checked these procedures and state that they are appropriate. All assets seem safeguarded against unauthorized or improper use. We have reviewed that all transactions are properly recorded and reported.

We are not engaged to and did not perform an audit, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on the design of the financial controls of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the use of Renaissance Charter High School for Innovation and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than the specified parties.

Very truly yours,

Stamm & Bader
